

Power of Participation Crossword

Philanthropic support from the alum community directly impacts each and every student at Mount Holyoke.

EVERY ALUM. EVERY YEAR.
STRONGER TOGETHER.

DOWN

- The full name of the beloved tradition celebrating spring
- Seniors surprise first years
- Class and color animal of the Frances Perkins scholars
- November 8 celebration inspires seniors with early morning ice cream
- Alums reconnect over the course of two beautiful May weekends
- Students invite those closest to them to share their MHC experience
- The name of the athletics' mascot
- The destination for both ice cream and laurel
- Class animal of the class celebrating their 35th Reunion
- Giving society recognizing donors who make gifts of $1,837 or more to Mount Holyoke
- Special gift for first years from the greenhouse
- Iconic accessory Mary Lyon used to collect funds
- Singers serenade paddlers in this illuminating Commencement tradition
- Color of the class celebrating their 5th Reunion this year
- The sweet treat that connects alums around the world at 6:37 PM

ACROSS

- Class colors, costumes and cheers help start the year on a jubilant note
- One of the most recognized Commencement activities
- "I will honor myself, my fellow students and Mount Holyoke College by acting responsibly, honestly and respectfully in both my words and deeds."
- Sophomores surprise first years with signs and treats given under an alias
- Giving society honoring those who have named the College a beneficiary of a will, trust, retirement plan or life insurance policy
- Prominent campus figure who became the official mascot of LITS
- Giving society recognizing donors who make a gift — of any size — each year
- Event celebrating the first student of color to graduate from MHC in 1883
- The name of MHC's annual fund (previously known as the Alumnae Fund)
- Event for sophomores celebrating reaching the "halfway point"
- MHC benefactor for whom a special dessert was named
- Class color and animal for Mount Holyoke Professional and Graduate Education alums
- Color of the class celebrating their 50th Reunion this year
- Class animal of the class celebrating their 20th Reunion
- Other name for Mt. Holyoke